

Chris Albrecht has been the Senior Vice President and General Manager for Harrah's Philadelphia in Chester since September 2016. Chris oversees the day-to-day operation of the facility and has led several capital projects in his time including the additions of the property's sports book, The Book, and the TopGolf Swing Suites. He has been in the gaming industry since July 2005.

Prior to Harrah's Philadelphia, Chris served as the Assistant General Manager of the Horseshoe Hammond property, where under his leadership, the property achieved strong financial and service results.

Chris also held the position of Assistant General Manager of Horseshoe Cincinnati where he assisted with hiring 1,700 team members and managed the successful grand opening in 2013. With several years of operational and administrative experience, Chris has also served as the Vice President and Executive Associate to the Central Division President, Director of Compensation & HR Effectiveness at Caesars Corporate office and as the Director of Slots in the Las Vegas Market.

Chris earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and an MBA from the UCLA Anderson School of Management. In the community, Chris serves as a Board Member of the Riverfront Alliance of Delaware County as well as the local chapter of the United Way.

A native of Coral Springs, Florida, Chris and his wife, Alex, and daughter, Harper, love living in the Philadelphia area.